NEWS FROM BLUES CRUISE 2005 and 2006 FALL TOUR U.S.

Matthias Baumgardt will be on a 2006 Fall Tour in the U.S. He will be performing with hand picked seasoned musicians from both of his regular European Bands. This could be considered a "Two for One" show as the performances will be a mix of their originals from both groups. Each Band is in-demand in Germany. This U.S. Tour is a result of Matthias' blazing performances during the Jam sessions on the 2005 Legendary Rhythm & Blues Cruise.

A quote from the editor of "Blues Wax" news letter about a performance by Matthias on the 2005 Blues Cruise:

" Looking like a cross between Anthony Gomes and Steve Vai he worked a battered old, short scale acoustic, complete with Willie-style hole worn into the body. He was not only interesting in his lead and rhythm playing, but also fun to watch as there wasn't a posed bone in his body....!"
Matthias and the bands clearly demonstrate the versatility and depth of their ability to perform Classic Rock to Blistering Blues. More info is available at the website: www.all-colours.com
